

Staff Contacts

Jennifer Di Nicola, Manager of Benefits, Information and Education

Jennifer.dinicola@ageoptions.org

Ph: 708-934-2223 (direct)

Manages the Benefits, information, and Education unit at AgeOptions. Responsible for the oversight and grants management of Aging and Disability Resource Network (ADRN) designated agencies. Program services included in the ADRN designation include Information and Assistance, SHIP, SHAP, MIPPA and Options Counseling. Provide strategic direction for community engagement/outreach, quality improvement and capacity building among ADRN funded agencies for aforementioned services.

Mauria Ownes, ADRN Training and Technical Assistance Specialist

mauria.owens@ageoptions.org

Ph: (708) 934-2228 (direct)

Responsible for the day-to-day support, training and technical assistance to enhance the provision of services provided by the ADRN network of funded agencies. Serves as main point of contact for questions, concerns from ADRN agencies as well as from the community. Also responsible for the collection and timely submission of grant reporting to the Illinois Department on Aging (IDOA).

Tyler Williams, Data and Program Support Specialist

tyler.williams@ageoptions.org

Ph: (708) 934-2261 (direct)

Responsible for the collection of monthly and quarterly reports from ADRN funded agencies and timely submission to IDOA for all grants in the Benefits, Information and Education unit of AgeOptions. Main point of contact for troubleshooting data entry or reporting of ADRN programs. Responsible for data training and technical support to agencies that enter data into STARS, AGINGIS related to ADRN services. Coordinates and co-hosts trainings for the network of providers and creates technical assistance and outreach materials for use by funded agencies.