

Key Government Stakeholders

USDA FNS – federal dept that regulates SNAP, authorizes and monitors retailers

HFS - the state government body making policy decisions

IDHS - the government body that administers the benefit and processes the applications

FCRCs are a subsection of IDHS, often referred to as the 'local public aid office'. This is the physical place that an application gets sent and processed.

Local Office Administrators run the local office, similar to an office manager.

Case workers receive applications and approve or deny benefit applications.
